Scott County Sends 24 More Draftees Into Army Service

Scott county sent 24 more men to Des Moines to be inducted into the U. S. army under the selective service law Wednesday. The group, comprised of 15 from board No. 1 and nine from board No. 2, left for the state capital by bus at 12:30 noon after gathering at their draft offices for final instructions at 10 a. m.
